

KIMBLE—JOHN ALEXANDER AND LUCY COLEMAN MOORES

Tragedy Strikes Stockton as 5 children of the family die in fire.

This is a story of five little children who lost their lives on August 3, 1881 in a house fire in Stockton, Utah. The children ranged from 10 to almost 1 month. Franklin Sylvester Kimble age 10 born 5 August 1871 and Flora May Kimble age 7 born 5 Aug 1871 both in Kansas, Elizabeth Ann Kimble Age 4 and twin boys Albert C Kimble and Earnest A Kimble born June 13, 1881 all in Stockton, Utah. No records have been located to tell us of the circumstances or the cause. We finally located the obituary for their father John Alexander Kimble and this is his story.

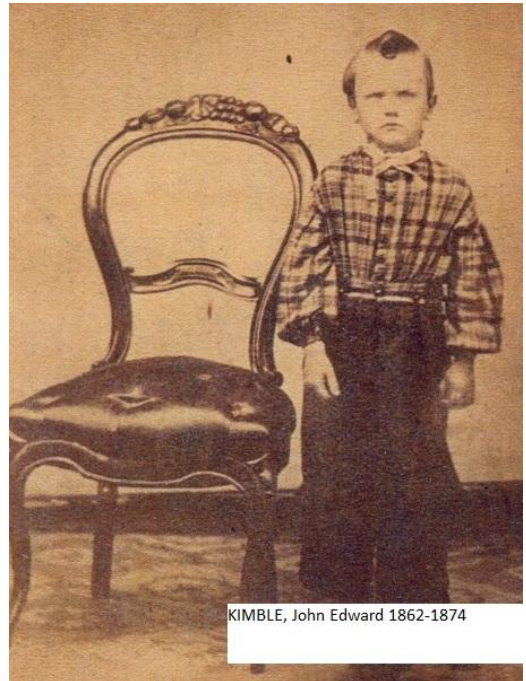

John Alexander Kimble was born in New York State August 12, 1833 and moved with his parents to Kirtland, Ohio when he was two years old. He lived there for 16 years and one of his vivid memories of that time was the passage through Ohio of a great number of Mormons on their historic western pilgrimage. John married Miss Lucy Moores January 5, 1856 in New York.

Her full name was Lucy Coleman Moores born October 5, 1840 in Westfield, Chautauqua, New York to Samuel Stillman Moores and Mary Colman.

In 1957 they were in Minnesota when Fanny Caroline Kimble was born August 23, 1857 and when her sister Mary Louise Kimble was born November 21, 1858. Their next move was to Virginia where Ella M Kimble was born May 22, 1860 in Fairfax, Virginia.

They went to Wisconsin and lived there until 1865. While there they had John Edward Kimble born March 12, 1862. Their next move apparently was to Iowa where William Leonard Kimble born March 5, 1865 in Iowa City, Wright, Iowa.

Next they went to Crystal Lake Illinois, where he followed his trade of blacksmithing. Two more children were born while they were there Lucy Voadicia Kimble was born January 5, 1867 and died February 20, 1867 and the other a boy born Mar 3, 1869 and died Mar 19, 1869. Both children are buried in the Lake Avenue Cemetery, Crystal Lake, McHenry, Illinois.

KIMBLE, John Edward 1862-1874

The year 1870 found them in Nanda, McHenry, Illinois. The census listed John 36, Lucy 29, Fanny 12, Mary 11, Ella 10, John 8 and William 5.

Later with an ox team he moved to Glasco, Kansas. Two children were born in Kansas it is not known if they were born in Glasco or not. Franklin Sylvester Kimble was born August 5, 1871 and Flora May Kimble was born May 17, 1874. Glasco, Kansas was also where their son John Edward Kimble died July 30, 1874 at the age of 12 from a rattlesnake bite; and their eldest daughter Mary, married Frederick Chapman September 10, 1875.

When he decided to move westward to Utah, he substituted horses for his oxen and made Stockton, Utah, his destination. Elizabeth Ana Kimble was born in Stockton, Tooele, Utah April 28, 1877. Next Albert C Kimble and Earnest A Kimble twin boys were born there June 13, 1881.

Here tragedy overtook the family. Five of the seven children with them were burned to death in a cabin fire, caused by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, before the parents could rescue them. Franklin Sylvester Kimble, Flora May Kimble, Elizabeth Anna Kimble and the twin boys Albert C Kimble and Earnest A Kimble. They were all buried in the Stockton Cemetery and the marker reads "In Memory of Frank, Flora, Lizzie and two Babies, children of Lucy and John KIMBLE died (the stone is broken) but the date is August 3, 1881 the rest of the stone is not readable.

Lucy did not go on with John, she returned to her daughter in Kansas. Mr. Kimble, with the two remaining children proceeded to California in the company of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Vose and family also from Stockton.

Mr Vose had been an Indian Scout, but when the party arrived in this part of California in 1882 each man took up a section of land and remained for the rest of his life. Their last child Frank Alexander Kimble was born August 21, 1882 in Glasco County, Kansas. In the 1900 census Lucy is shown alone with her sister Mary B Rogers in Bloomfield, Walworth, Wisconsin. Lucy later was in California where her husband was with their son Frank. She is not shown back with the family until the 1920 census but must have been in between the census records.

Mr. Kimble went into the blacksmithing business with the late S. K. Greene at the intersection of the old trail from Visalia and Smith's ferry with the road running west to Mussel slough.

Soon after the opening of the town of Traver by the Southern Pacific railroad, Kimble and Greene opened their shop there and manufactures windmills, which for many years were a distinctive feature in the valley landscape, replacing the primitive home-made affairs with four blades covered with “gunny sack”, and having a pole for a rudder to set the fans against the breeze. In 1889 Kimble and Greene made windmills their principle business. Years later they went into ranching. A few years before John’s death he retired from ranching.

Of thirteen children these parents got to raise five to the age of marriage as follows:

Their second child was the first married. Mary Louise Kimble married Frederick Chapman, a farmer, December 21, 1874 in Kansas. They had 11 children all born in Glasco, Cloud, Kansas. Their oldest child William Henry Chapman born January 24, 1876, died there January 24, 1890; Stella Christina born December 25, 1877; Edward Franklin born August 17, 1881; Fred born September 8, 1884; John Arthur December 20, 1886 and Daniel born July 21, 1889. In 1915 her husband died there. She moved to Diuba, Tulare, California where some of her family were living. She died there May 30, 1948.

Fanny Caroline Kimble married Francis Rudolph Hoyer, a farmer, September 10, 1875 in Glasco, Cloud, Kansas. They lived there the rest of their life. Her children were twins Francis and Martin Born 23 Nov 1876, Martin drowned April 16, 1900 same place, another son Edward Rudolph Born 29 March 1878 died 19 Sep 1878 at 5 mo 21 days, Mary Bell and Bennie F born 30 Mar 1885 the son died 5 Apr 1885 at 5 days, Ora M born Feb 11, 1888 and died Sep 26, 1888, and twin Olive Pansy born Feb 11, 1888. Fanny died at her home in Kansas after a long illness on June 30, 1895. During her illness she bore her sufferings with the courage and fortitude of a true Christian woman. She was a member of the Christian church whose community she dearly loved and highly honored. She left a husband and three children as well as her mother, sister and many friends. She was buried in the Glasco Cemetery.

William Leonard Kimble their fifth child married Maire Jane Pangborn November 9, 1892 in Cottage Grove, Manluis, Oregon occupation mechanic. They had one child. William after his father. William Leonard died April 15, 1950 in Bend, Deschutes, Oregon and buried in the Taylor Lane Cemetery, Cottage Lane, Oregon.

Their last son Frank Alexander Kimble married Julia Adelaide Voss March 11, 1893 in Fresno, Fresno, California and settled in San Joaquin, California where he died January 14, 1953. She was born in Tooele, Tooele, Utah to Warren Voss and Janet A Smith. She was a daughter of the family who came to California with his father. She previously had been married to a man by the name of Fry. In the 1920 census Frank, Julia and the four children Kyle Fry, Bernice H Fry, Melvin J Fry and Margarite were living in Dinuba, Tulare, California

Ella Maria Kimble never got married she was shown in the 1900 and 1910 census with her father and brother Frank in Kaweah, Tulare, California. For some reason her father was listed as James in the 1900 census.

In 1910 John is still shown in Kaweah, Tulare, California with Ella who passes away on July 10, 1910 in Tulare, California.

In the 1920 Census John A Kimble 86 is visiting with a grandson John A Chapman child of his daughter Mary Louise in Dinuba, Tulare, California. Lucy C now age 79 is with her son Frank in the same town Dinuba, Tulare, California.

Lucy Coleman Morres Kimble passed away on October 18, 1920 in Dinuba, Tulare, California.

John Alexander Kimble lived for four more years in the same place and died April 18, 1924 in Dinuba, Tulare, California. This is his obituary: Early Dinuba Settler Dies John Alexander Kimble Was Pioneer—DINUBA, April 22—John Alexander Kimble, whose funeral was held this afternoon from the Dopkins Chapel here, was past 90 years of age, and had during his long life done much pioneering. He was born in New York state, and moved with his parents to Ohio when he was two years old. He lived there for 16 years and one of his vivid memories of that time was the passage through Ohio, of great numbers of Mormons on their historic western pilgrimage. He went to Wisconsin and lived there until 1866. In that time having married Miss Lucy Moore. They with their children, went to Crystal Lake, Illinois, where he followed his trade of blacksmithing.

Later with an ox team he moved to Glasco, Kansas, and there his eldest daughter Mary, who is now a resident of Dinuba, married Fred L. Chapman. When he decided to move westward to Utah, he substituted horses for his oxen and made Stockton, Utah, his destination.

Here tragedy overtook the family. Five of their seven children were burned to death in a cabin before the parents could rescue them. The mother returned to her daughter in Kansas, but Mr. Kimble, with the two remaining children proceeded to California in the Company of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Vose and family.

Mr Vose had been an Indian scout, but when the party arrived in this part of California in 1882 each man took up a section of land and remained for the rest of his life. Mr. Vose died some years ago. Mr. Kimble went into the blacksmithing business with the late S. K. Greene at the intersection of the old trail from Visalia and Smith's ferry with the road running west to Mussel slough.

Soon after the opening of the town of Traver by the Southern Pacific railroad, Kimble and Greene opened their shop there and manufactured windmills, which for many years were a distinctive feature in the valley landscape, replacing the primitive home-made affairs with four sails covered with “gunny sack” and having a pole for a rudder to set the fans against the breeze. In 1889 Kimble and Green made ranching their principal business, and it is but a few years since that Mr Kimble retired from this service.

Subject to correcting we believe the following are in this picture: Front row left Garland M Kimble, William

Leonard Kimble wife behind him Maria Jane Panghorn to the right of William his other son Murl John Kimble, behind him his grandfather John Alexander Kimble and next to him is Frank Kimble’s wife Julia Adelaide Voss and in front of her Frank Alexander Kimble.

